Booking

In order to book and attend any of the trips it is vital that you complete and return the permission and consent forms to the Parish office at least 24 hours before outing. Anyone without a returned permission and consent form will not be allowed to go on any of the trips.

Payments need to be submitted to the office or to the parish youth worker, Paul O'Neill. If you are booking the full programme, please have your payments in before Monday 14th August. If you are attending individual trips, please have your payments in before the day of that trip.

When filling out your booking form, please complete the table and return all necessary documents. If you are booking for the full programme, please tick all the "Attending" boxes and note that the total price is discounted to £65. If you are booking separate trips, please mark which ones you would like to attend and total the price of the trips by referring to the pricing column. Please ensure you enclose your payment with the completed booking table and the permission and consent form. Cheques should be made payable to "Holywood Parish Church."

All activities and centres that we will attend are professionally managed and carry their own insurance.

We are very excited to be launching Summer Breakout 2017 at Holywood Parish and are looking forward to all the incredible activities lined up for the young people!
