Dear friends

“Regretted Fiery Onions”?

This is not me confessing to poor choice in my diet. It is a What Three Words location at one of the doors of our parish church which a parishioner pointed out to my amusement in the last few days. If you are not aware of it,

What Three Words helps you identify a location with three seemingly random and unconnected words. Try looking up your home and share it with me when we meet next!

It throws up some interesting existential questions? Where are we? Where are we on life’s journey? Where are we on the road of discipleship? I hope that if, put on the spot, or 3m square grid reference, you would have an answer.

The bible tells us that when he heard God’s command (Genesis 12) Abram was willing to obey and set out to follow as God led. The implication was that while he did not know the detail of where he was going that God would be with him. The new testament tells us that he was ultimately destined for a heavenly city (Hebrews 11:8-11). Where we are now- is seldom where we will end up- and that is definitely something we should consider.

I hope you might be able to join us for Sunday services or midweek worship at “shin hawks dabbling” (which is also the door into the parish church!).

Yours in Christ, Gareth
